BEST FAIR SHOW IS JUNIOR CLUBS

Two of Gazette Cups Awarded—Judging Pig Club Entries Thursday.

Taking the entire Janesville fair and livestock exposition and selecting the most interesting, worth-while and satisfactory exhibits on the grounds, the junior club members of the Janesville fair association are going to make agricultural history with their junior clubs.

Rock has made rapid progress in junior club work and all the work, time and money that has been employed in promoting the fair exhibit well remunerated by the fair exhibit Wednesday and Thursday. Rock county's leading farmers and livestock breeders of the future were assembled in the club exhibits. They assured the reputation of the county for having quality products from the farm will not only be continued, but improved upon.

In the junior Holstein heifer class there were 27 of the black and white youngsters lined up for inspection by the judges. R. S. Hulce, Madison, was inspected, and for every calf was inspected, and for more than an hour he held the class, giving every junior a fair opportunity on bringing out the superior points of the animal. Once the class was placed Judge Hulce took time to explain his awards.

Club officials expressed entire satisfaction with the judges and there was no criticism from the spectators or troublesome disputes. The order in which the junior heifers were placed follows: Gilbert Dresser, Beloit; Donald Bowdler, Beloit; Walter Paul, Milton Junction; Arthur Wheeler, Beloit; Elwood Hughes, Janesville; Candace Hurley, Milton Junction; George Klingberg, Beloit; Edith Clarke, Janesville; Cecil Broughton, Albany; Dorothy Decker, Janesville; Maurice Woodworth, Evansville; Davis, Milton; Mercedes Matrone, Milton Junction; Norman Dresser, Clinton; Peggy Manogue, Milton Junction; Clifford Lima, Brodhead; Caroline Eurler, Milton; Winifred Stenke, Beloit; Edwin Griffith, Evansville; Oscar Gustafson, Beloit; Clarence McNally, Milton; Thomas McComb, Lima; Floyd Klingberg, Beloit; and Edward Fisher, Janesville.

Holstein Classes. In the senior Holstein heifer class and the other in which they were placed was Marvin Helgeson, Milton Junction; George Jones, Milton Junction; Edward Fisher, Beloit; and Elizabeth Huesbe, Beloit.

There were two entries in the junior Holstein bull class with Catherine Monogue, Milton Junction, winning, with Harry Sarow, Footville, second.

In the senior Holstein bull class there were four entries and the placing: Theodore Larson, Clinton; Sylvester Wilcox, Beloit; Stewart Bettendorf, Footville; Donald Ballis, Footville.

With the Junior Yearling Holstein heifers Alice Clarke, Janesville, won, with Mildred Zink, Beloit, second, and Elizabeth Huesbe, Beloit, third. These were last year's club calves returned, for the policy of the junior club committee beyond the first year club fair classes and prizes. Floyd Klingberg showed a junior yearling bull calf.

Award Championships. In the grand championships for Holsteins, Marvin Helgeson, Milton Junction, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Helgeson, won the royal purple of Holsteins, and Theodore Larson, Clinton, won in the blue classes.

In the Guernsey division, the first club for this breed, there was a row of calves showing good dairy quality and type. On the junior heifer class the order was: Helen Kersten, Janesville; John Geoffrey, Milton Junction; William Kersten, Janesville; Lorraine Porter, Evansville; Russell Christbaum, Whitewater; Harold Kohls, Beloit; and Bennett Kellogg, Janesville. In the senior calf class Harold Porter, Evansville, won.

Helen Kersten won the championship prize.

The Shorthorn Club. There was a good lineup of Milkings Shorthorns in this division, all home bred animals. They were straight, well fitted and carried true dual-purpose type. This is one of the first clubs for these dual-purpose animals in the state, and the club ranks better than animals in the open classes.

In the junior heifer calf classes Wynelle Marquart, Milton Junction, won first, with Andrew Barless and Emmett Arnold next in line.

Wynelle Marquart repeated in the senior heifer class, winning the blue with Marie Adde, Milton; Lucius Spalding, Milton; Ralph Rye, Avalon; Walter Paul, Janesville; Olaf Larson, Beloit; Hughie Cullen, Edgerton and Milton Junction, next in line. The championship went to Marquart.

Then came the sweepstakes for the Gazette cup, "breed winners" being placed against each other for the grand sweepstakes championship. Marvin Helgeson won for the senior Holstein in an outstanding animal, precision to perfection and a winner in every sense of the word.

Showman's Prize. The real spectacle of the junior dairy calf show was the competition for the prizes offered by the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association for the best shown animal among calf club members. There were more than 60 boys and girls in this contest, all striving their best to show their entries. They were given a short lecture on how to show animals and then put through the paces of posing, walking and various ring steps.

The contest was judged by Reid Murray, Madison, secretary of the Livestock Breeders' association; T. L. Bewick, Madison, state club leader, and R. S. Hulce, Madison. The top honor, a silver cup, was won by Helen Kersten, who had never showed in the ring before, with Edith Clarke, Janesville, champion calf club girl last year, second; and Olaf Larson, Edgerton, third. The Clarke girl was given a showman's kit and Larsen a calf heifer, the prizes being distributed by John Robinson, Evansville, president of the breeders' association.

The Kersten girl had her Guernsey calf well trained and followed instruction so well she won the prize and compliments of the judges.

The ewe lamb class Roy Huginn won the blue with 10 entries. The class finished as follows: Alice Clarke, Katherine Sullivan, Florence Marquette, Janesville; Lucile Bowles, Orfordville; James Arnold, Beulah Waldman, Ruth Crail, Janesville; Ruth Campbell, Evansville; and George Rasmussen, Evansville.

For the best win lambs, Huginn won first, with Alice Clarke, Edith Clarke, Katherine Sullivan, Harold Cudebeck, Florence Marquette, Beulah Waldman, Ruth Crail and Ruth Campbell placing.

Judging the Pigs. Burle Deback, swine judge, had trouble on his hands Thursday in judging the Rock county junior pig club entries. There were 180 pigs entered and competition on each breed, the Baby Beaves were also judged Thursday.

Rock county agricultural students also achieved success in the farm products exhibits winning heavy on sheafs, forage crops and grains.

The junior club department has an outstanding feature is at the Janesville fair to stay.

Moose of Two Cities to Picnic

Moose lodges and women's auxiliaries of two cities, Janesville and Beloit, will join in an all day picnic.

The picnic will be held at the Beloit fair grounds, with a picnic dinner, races and other sporting events on the program. Members, their families and friends are invited. The affair will begin in the morning and continue until night.

BROOKLYN MAN, HURT BY COW, REMOVED TO HOSPITAL AT MADISON

Brooklyn, W. J. Borst, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Borst, Brooklyn, has been taken to Madison General hospital for attention as the result of an accident a week ago when he was seriously injured by a vicious cow which he was attempting to milk.

For a few days it was thought his condition was improving but later he grew worse and weaker. He was taken to Madison Tuesday and an X-ray was taken but it is not known yet whether or not an operation will be necessary.

COUNTY HERD WINS HOLSTEIN HONORS

Walcowis Ollie Hylaard Takes Senior and Grand Championships.

Senior and grand championship bull honors in the Holstein classes at the Janesville fair were won by Walcowis Ollie Hylaard, the aged sire heading the Rock county show herd. Ollie placed first in a class of four aged bulls and won over the two-year-old entry of Howard Millar—a half brother—in the championship contest.

The placings in the aged bull contest judged by Bob Zaeger, Algona, were as follows: Walcowis Ollie Hylaard, owned by J. A. Craig, E. P. Conn, John W. Jones and Dr. G. W. Post; the three year old entry from the Rock county show herd, Ollie Hylaard, a four year old shown by Funk Brothers, and Sir Echo Shown by Leeds, owned by A. G. Russell, Janesville, in fourth position.

In the two year old bull class there were three entries and the son of Ollie Hylaard won the blue, with the name Walcowis Aberkirk Ollie, named first, defeating Prince Denver Creamelle, owned by Kraft and Farnsworth, Beloit, second, and the son of Ollie Hylaard, owned by Funk Brothers, in third position.

County Herd Wins. In the junior yearling class a county herd entry owned by Ward Brothers won the blue.

There were only two in the senior bull calf class and the King Farm entry owned by J. A. Craig placed first and the entry of the M. M. and M. O. Douglas farm, Green county, second.

There were four entries in the junior calf class and a county herd entry owned by John Goldthorpe placed first with Alice Clarke and John L. Fisher, next in line.

"Walcowis Ollie Hylaard is looking better than I ever saw him," was the expression of Judge Bob Zaeger after making the championship award. "The Miller bull is a come and with another year will show more to advantage."

The newest addition to the county Holstein herd won the blue in the junior calf class. A rather small but wonderful type cow owned by John W. Jones placed first with an entry from the John L. Fisher farm, second, and a large cow from the Goldthorpe farm in third position. The Wisconsin School for the Blind had three cows in the next order in line.

County Farm Wins. In the two year old and under three year old heifer class the Goldthorpe entry in the county herd placed first for the blue, with the Douglas herd cow in second place and the J. A. Craig heifer, third.

There was no question but the blue ribbon winner in the junior heifer class for the county farm entry in the county herd went to the head of the line and stayed there, with the J. A. Craig entry second and Douglas third.

The county farm repeated in the junior yearling class, winning the blue on the daughter of the first yearling entry in the county herd, with the J. A. Craig entry second and Douglas third.

The county herd went one-two in the senior heifer calf division, the twin calves owned by Funk Brothers taking first and second, John L. Fisher, third, and the Wisconsin School for the Blind, fourth.

In the junior calf division the county herd placed first, with A. G. Russell and Son put a calf into first position, with John L. Fisher and John Goldthorpe, third. John Wahinger placed fourth.

The championships were decided noon Wednesday and the Jerseys went to follow in the ring with Haager judging. Ray Hulce judged the Guernseys.

Beef Shorthorn Winners. There were five herds competing in the Beef Shorthorn division judged Wednesday by J. M. Chamberlain, Beloit, and close competition. In the aged bull class there were two entries with Master's Signet, owned by J. J. McCann, placing first, and Victoria, owned by the G. Marce and Son herd, La Crosse, second.

In the two and under three year old class J. W. Lathers, Beloit, was first. Lathers was again first; John White, Afton, second, and Marce, third.

In the junior yearling class John Miller won the blue, with McCann second, White third and fourth.

In the senior calf class the Marce herd entry went first; Lathers, second, and White, third, and fourth.

In the junior calf division Marce won first; Lathers, second; McCann, third.

There were five age cows in the ring and Jessica of Genova, county champion last year, won the blue, with Lathers, second; Marce, third; McCann, fourth.

In the senior yearling class Lathers placed first; Marce, second; Lathers, third; McCann, fourth.

In the junior yearling the order was Marce, McCann, Marce, and Lathers, fourth, and in the junior calf division McCann won the blue with Marce, second; White, third, and Lathers, fourth.

FOUR LEADERS OF NATION RIDE IN CAPITAL CORTEGE

By ROBERT T. SMALL
Special Correspondent of the Gazette Copyright 1923.

Washington.—Four men upon whom the mantle of the presidency of the United States has fallen at one time or another rode to the capitol Wednesday. At the forefront of the solemn cavalcade was the dead Harding, whose body was being brought to the capitol to be buried in the White House.

Wilson, broken and last of all came Wilson, broken on the wheel of duty just short of four years ago, pale, exceedingly gray, but with the spirit of the crusader still burning strong within him; Wilson, who was eight years in the White House, the longest continuous term of any president since Grant.

Washington has never known such a procession of the presidents before. No president has ever before been mourned by two of his predecessors in the White House.

Muffled drums and the distant throb of miniguns marked the passage of the historic funeral pageant. As he had revered the office in life, so the presidency revered Warren Harding in death. The honors of the land were his. About him gathered all the living symbols of government.

The fallen chieftain received his last meed of homage.

At this funeral as at his inauguration, but a little more than two years ago, the Bible was opened at Micah VI: 8.

"He hath showed thee, O man, what is good and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

It was on this verse, of his own selection, that Warren Harding placed his hand as he took the oath of office as twenty-ninth president of the United States. It was his conception of his duty. And he walked humbly to the end. Death sought him, however, as a shining mark, and the nation's tribute, climaxed here in Washington, was all that the most exalted might ask. But of the living presidents:

Coolidge, always serious of mien, almost grim, seemed to have his compressed lips set more tightly than ever. The opportunities of the presidency are still before him and he appeared particularly silent, more thoughtful than ever, wrapped up in the unexpressed thoughts with which he spends so much of his time.

The serious burdens of a serious office will find Coolidge in serious mood to bear them. In fact he knows no other mood. Life, to him, has always been serious, with but little time to play. The seclusion of the White House will be greatly to his liking, and it may safely be predicted that he will be much alone, searching for his line of duty in the same manner as the christian martyrs of old searched their souls and found their faith.

GONA COFFEE—Um! It's Good.

All Fat People Should Know This

Fat people owe a debt of gratitude to the author of the new famous Marmala Prescription, and are still more indebted for the discovery of this harmless, effective obesity remedy to tablet form. Marmala Prescription tablets can be obtained at all drug stores the world over at the reasonable price of one dollar for a case, or you can secure the product on receipt of price from the Marmala Co., 412 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. This new leaves no traces of violent exercise, or disgusting greases and salves, for the reduction of the overfat body to normal.

What the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) Means To You

WHEN the Standard Oil Company was born, this country of ours was a land of scattered agriculturists and a few centers of struggling industry.

Power was limited to the physical endurance of horse and man.

Had you lived then you would have enjoyed few of the comforts which today are a common heritage.

In one generation, living conditions in our country have changed completely.

Today, we are a prosperous nation. Our industrial production is intensive. The world is our market.

Petroleum products, created and manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have made new industries possible.

Individual opportunities have multiplied in exact ratio to the progress of industry.

New industrial practices and modern refinements have been made possible because petroleum furnished the operating power.

Petroleum supplied the lubricants needed for the speeding up of machinery and the consequent increased production.

With these new practices and the new institutions to manufacture the new products, came new opportunities of all kinds — for labor — for capital — for initiative.

Today you have an automobile — something your father never dreamed of owning.

The fact that you own an automobile is less significant than the fact that the machinery of industry — dependent upon petroleum for its successful operation — has made it possible for so large a percentage of people to own one.

Without petroleum products — the kind of petroleum products manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) — the brawny arms of every other industry would shrivel to uselessness.

Without Standard Oil Company (Indiana) initiative and industrial daring your standard of living today would be on a different plane.

80 BABIES ARE EXAMINED IN DAY

Weighing and Measuring Continues at Fair—Will Announce Winners Sat.

Eighty babies were examined in the infant welfare section at the Jans-ville fair Wednesday. This is a larger number than have been examined in one day at any time previously in the history of infant welfare work in Rock county.

Many mothers who did not care to stand in line and await the turn for their babies were turned away during the day. Registrations were taken by Miss Alice Glenn, Jansville school nurse. Miss Anna Luetscher, county nurse, was in general charge with Miss Hulda Andreas, city nurse, assisting with weighing and measuring. Medical examination was given by Dr. Ralph Hartman, representing the Kiwanis club children's clinic.
Examinations were continued all day Thursday.

Prizes are to be awarded Saturday morning to the babies that are found to be the nearest perfect physically.
Health Examinations in the health section was completed by Misses Luetscher and Glenn Wednesday afternoon. For the best health exhibit the first award was won by a group of Beloit high school girls who had assembled a representation of a dental clinic.

The community nurse exhibit arranged by Evansville, high school girls won second place.

The third award went to Miss Marjorie Earl, Jansville, whose exhibit brought out the relation of fly control to health.

Pupils of Miss Agnes Smith, sixth grade, Washington school, won all three prizes for posters entered in the upper grade division from city schools. Two pupils worked together in making each of the prize winning posters as follows: 1st, Charlotte and Duane Simmons; 2nd, Augustine Castagna and Ernest Falk; 3rd, Claude Boothroyd and Kenneth Hoover. The posters were the combined product of paper-cutting, drawing and painting.

In the 5th and 6th grade division, city schools, poster prizes were awarded as follows: 1st, Alvin Apfel, Douglas; 2nd, Mae Dooley, Evansville; 3rd, Robert Schiele, Adams.

Rural School Prizes—Rural school poster awards in 4th and 5th grades are as follows: 1st, Harold Jones, Footville; 2nd, Harold Probe, Footville; 3rd, Alice Slinde, Dist. 2, Newark. Upper grades division: 1st, Thelma Paulson, Dist. 2, Newark; 2nd, Thelma Paulson, Dist. 2, Newark; 3rd, Harold Knudson, Dist. 2, Newark.
Miss Ella Root taught the one room school, Dist. 2, Newark, whose pupils made three of the prize winning posters.

Leroy and Theodore Gelsler, Forest Academy school, town of Union, carried off all the honors for window ventilators, winning first and second awards respectively.

Douglas school second grade was awarded first place for "Healthland" sandy and Adams first grade won second honors in this competition.

BROKER IS BANKRUPT
New York—Charles L. Peabody, a stockbroker, today filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the federal district court, stating his liabilities as $187,268 and his assets as $28,800.

Martinsburg has been making a runaway race in the Blue Ridge league this season.

WEEK-END FINDS NEW THEATER BILLS

As with last week, every one of Jansville's three theaters will have a change in program Friday. As yet, theaters have made no plans for closing at all on Friday, the national day of mourning, and will run their usual matinees and evening performances.

Week-end attractions are:
Theater—The Majestic policy of showing return engagements during the middle of the week is a worthwhile one when such productions as "The West" are brought back. This has been Constance Talmadge's greatest production and is a fine picture.
The attraction for Friday and Saturday is "Railroaded," with Herbert Rawlinson, a picture of the type he usually plays in The American picture chapter picture, "The Oregon Trail," will be continued.

Apollon—Thursday will see the last of one of the finest pictures seen here in months—"Within the Law," starring Norma Talmadge. It should not be missed. With vaudeville and "Omar, the Tentmaker," starring Guy Bates Post, due for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, this week at the Apollon is a notable which "Omar, the Tentmaker" was one of the best pictures of early 1923, and is a classic of screen beauty.
The attraction for Friday and Saturday within this week will occur at the Beverly Friday, when the first of "The Bandwagon" will be shown. "The Nth Commandment" is to be repeated Thursday. This stars Colleen Moore, while the week-end picture is a volunteer for Dorothy Dalton and David Powell. Other features are added.

AT THE BEVERLY.
Audiences were large at the Beverly Wednesday afternoon and night to see the opening of "The Nth Commandment," starring Colleen Moore. Thursday night.

It is a Cosmopolitan Paramount production, which will be shown in the attraction of home life by desires and ambitions of the wife, wishing for things beyond her means, and taking them when they come, even at a great price.

Colleen Moore plays the leading part with her usual winsomeness, and wins favor with her appealing type of acting. James Morrison is good as the husband, although rather weak for this part, and others in the picture are good. Comedies are also shown.

HIGH MASS SAID FOR PRESIDENT

Milwaukee—A multitude of Catholics here flocked to their churches Thursday to pay tribute to the memory of President Harding. Solemn high mass was said in all Catholic churches in the city, on the request of Archbishop S. G. Koerner. Because the church law prohibits a requiem mass being said on the feast of St. Lawrence, which falls on Friday, the memorial was held today.

Removes Hairy Growths Without Pain or Bother

(Modes of Today)
It is not necessary to use a painful process to remove hairy growths, for with a little delatone handy you can keep the skin smoothly free from those beauty destroyers. To remove hair, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water. Spread this on the hairy surface and in about 2 minutes rub off with the skin and the hairs are gone. Be careful to get real delatone. Mix fresh as wanted. Advertisement.

SALVATION ARMY CAMP AUG. 13-20 21 from Here Registered to Date — Transportation Sought for Them.

Six mothers and fifteen children have registered at the Salvation Army for the free outing of one week at Army lake, near East Troy, beginning Aug. 13. The quota for Jans-ville and the northern half of Rock county is 75. Captain Boyle, commanding officer, will be glad to have reports concerning any needy families to whom such an outing will be a boom.

Jansville citizens are asked to furnish transportation to and from the camp. J. W. Dady, chairman of the advisory board, would like to hear from persons willing to help in this way.

Mrs. Doyle says that some of the mothers of day nursery children would like to take the outing which both they and their little ones need, but do not feel that they can lose a week's earnings. Most of these women do not earn over $10 a week, and as they can take children up to sixteen to camp, thereby saving the cost of food supplies for the week, $5 would cover the net loss, in most instances.

Perhaps some folks who are enjoying nice vacations of their own on full pay would like to donate this amount to make it possible for a hardworking mother to have what may be her first vacation in years.

The Salvation Army workers will see that such aid is passed on to those who need it most and who would not otherwise be able to lose the time

Mrs. Harry Ash.
Miss Adelaide Plack, Beloit, is the guest of Miss Mary Ma'len.
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E.
Palmer Thursday at 8 p. m., when their daughter, Mildred, was married to Carl Oakley, son of Mr.
Grace Oakley, Milton. Pastor L. D.
Seager, Albion, officiated. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. J. E. Edward sang "O Promise Me".
William Stittman played the wedding march. The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe trimmed with panels of silk lace. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Babcock. Mrs. Babcock's gown was of pink georgette over chamoisee. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. The bride and groom were guests of the Edgerton high school class of 1917, and of Milton college, 1919. For the past year she taught in Minnesota. Mr. Oakley is an instructor at Milton College.
After a trip to Yellowstone park and other western points, they will be at home in Milton.

KARBERG ELECTED
V-P OF STATE DYERS

Arthur Karberg was elected vice-president of the Wisconsin Association of Dyers and Cleaners at the annual convention at Oshkosh, Monday and Tuesday. Louis C. Kerstel and William Brookhaus also attended. The former was again elected representative of Dyers and Cleaners to the board of directors. They returned Tuesday night.
At the convention talks were made by experts and noted chemists discussing new processes of cleaning and dyeing and discussions held to bring out any experiences of Wisconsin cleaners which have proved successful. Late developments of allied trades were announced, and chemists from Iowa state university addressed the members. There is a cleaning and dyeing course open at that institution.
More than 100 cleaners attended the convention.

County Agricultural Agent Merriam is working on a big county tour of the farmers, to be made to Frank Mann's farm, Gilman, Ill., August 21 and 22. Mr. Mann is the sole and cropmaster of the Prairie Farmer and he has made a wonderful record on his 400 acre farm the past few years. In 15 years he has doubled the yields of crops. His methods of enriching the land has brought an average of 33 bushel oats, 95 bushel corn, and 48 bushel wheat per acre, and Mr. Merriam declares farmers who make the trip will learn more than in hearing Mr.
Mann speak at Farm Bureau and club meetings. He is urging many auto loads to be made up for this tour.
